“ I know this is a late note, but I had lost contact with Doris since we were roommates in Columbia S C in 1956 when she and Ray married. Four of us working girls shared an apartment on Pendleton St. I loved Doris and Ray but as we al married and got on with our own lives we got out of touch. I have recently been in touch with the other two girls

Who all live in SC. One is a widow as I am, but the other married to a minister for all these years. Doris and I were both born in 1936. She was a sweet lady and I wish we had stayed in touch, but as far as I know, we are all Christians and will see each other some day in Heaven. God bless you all, children, grandchildren, all family and friends.
