“ We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name, In life we loved you dearly; in death we do the same It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone. For part of us went with you, the day God called you home You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide, And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same, But as God call us one by one, the chain will link again.

“ Doris and I were distant cousins by blood, but in recent years since her illness had become worse, we have become very close. I cherish the time I spent taking both her and Don to doctors appointments and going to lunch afterwards. Although it was difficult communicating with her, we still managed. I will truly miss her and will think of her often. Jerald and Don, please know that I am still here to help you when needed.

“ Doris was my best friend for many years. We shared a lot of time, conversation and memories. I have missed her for years and hated when we were unable to communicate anymore. I loved her and I am happy that she is at peace now and having no more pain. My heart goes out to Don, Jarold and his family. God bless. Glenda Dailey
