“ Aunt Dot and Uncle Mack loved children. She helped raise so many, including mine. My three, even though grown, still talk of her with love. She called me a little over month ago and we talked for about an hour. Julie had gone to look for a car for someone so we talked of grandchildren and great grands and family.

She disliked O.J. Simpson because his never-ending trial cut into her soap operas. (Heaven forbid!!). I can still see her, supper fixed, soap operas over, sitting in her swing on the front porch waiting for Mack to come home from work.

*Rest - Rest In Peace,
Dear Aunt Dot*
