“ I am so sorry for your loss. Dot was a special person in my life. She was best friends with my sister Cathy so I inherited her as a friend the little sister tag along. I remember when I was about 13 or so Cathy and Dot decided that Dot needed to cut my hair. She promised me a dollar if I didn't like it. Well she did a beautiful job but if course I said I didn't like it. Needless to say I didn't get that dollar but had an excellent hairdresser until she moved from Greensboro. Dot, you will be missed. ^j^

“Wow there are so many memories how do you pick just one , Dot was always so happy always a smile that would brighten your day . Dot was one of the first people i met 28 years ago when I moved here . Her daughter and her were best of friends and Lanie and I became great friends and we all became family , Dot loved her grandchildren very much and i had the pleasure of being involved with there upbringing we shared the role of Grandma but no could ever replace her . So many holidays and birthdays were spent together but Thanksgiving sticks out because of black friday , Dot and Lanie loved shopping and would scour the ads after our thanksgiving meal so i gues this is one of my fondest memories . May you rest in peace Miss Dot you will be greatly missed . we love you, Kim Gianelli

“Dot was so well thought of in Greensboro Al. I've told this story before, but here goes again.

Mary Ann, my sister and Dot were the best of friends. One hot, summer day, Dot, Sherman Moore and I decided to ride out bicycles to “Lake Payne” which was 18 miles one way. We had planned to get there, swim and then paddle back. The longest, most grueling encounter of my life. I don't remember if Dot and Sherman rode back but I didn't! I called my Daddy crying to come get his sunburned baby girl. I can still see Dot laughing at me. A special lady for sure. One day though, I'll see her again. Prayers for all, Joy
