“ I will always remember what a great young man you had become, always willing to help anyone with apure heart. You taught people your age and adults like myself what true friends and family were all about. Always helping anyone in need. You are truly missed by so many people. Every person that met you loved you and James loved you so much and I appreciate you showing him love like family . I love you and miss your joy and smile. You always made it a joy to be around you. Love you Aunt Linda

“ *Shocked and saddened to hear of Wade's passing. Although I only knew him for a short period of time, I found him to be a kind and thoughtful young man with a deep felt love for his family and tremendous loyalty to his friends. My heart aches for the many lives he touched and left behind.
Rest in peace Wade. You will live forever in the memories of all that have the pleasure of knowing you.*
