“ You were MOM to so many of us teenagers back in the day. Hanging out at the house and around pool. Having to leave Charleston was sad. BUT I was fortunate enough to be able to see you the last few years of your wonderful life. You were such a loving MOM and a devoted servant to our Lord Jesus Christ and a friend to so many. You let me into your home once again and treated me as though I had never been away. You enjoyed your Gamecocks and Saturday Salon days with Dairy Queen strawberry sundaes and tried to sneak those cookies and ice cream treats in the evening when Tommy wasn't looking. I guess you could say you still had a little devil in you, but to me you were such an angel and you will be so missed by me and so many. I love you MOM and I will see you once again one day in our permanent home. God bless you ♡

“ I will always remember my mom with full of life and always a kind heart, she always put her children and grandchildren first and always her devotion to family supreme in nature. Mom was human though she had her battles with everyday life as we all do but she kept fighting she beat cancer to live another 14 years, added time to see her great grands being born. Mom had a great life and I will never forget her. I will think about her every day till we meet again. Your loving son Charles your little duck.

“ It was my pleasure to finally meet Momma Fritz after 40 years of friendship with her baby boy. For years I've witnessed an amazing relationship for the love and nurturing care of a devoted son for his adorable mother. Of course that love is so strong it breaks the barrier between life and death ... that paves the way to eternity. Love is eternal ... God is Love. Heaven just opened its pearly gates for the entrance of another earthly angel. Enjoy your walks in God's gardens, Momma Fritz! Much love and many prayers to Momma Fritz's family and friends as you endure difficult days ahead. Tears will turn into laughter in Momma Fritz's memory.
Love, Tommy's friend,

“ I never had the pleasure of meeting "Momma Fritz" but feel like I did through her most loving Son sharing and expressing his love for her in their every day ups and downs. She certainly gave it all she had, it seems, and God was ready for her to join him and accept her wings! I know Tommy it will be hard, but just remember she will be guiding you every minute along the way. You will be in my thoughts and Prayers for Strength in the days ahead, one day at a time...

“ I never had the pleasure to meet Mama Fritz but Tommy posted all their adventures together and made her a part of all our lives. I always looked forward to their next adventure. She had many fans on Facebook who loved her and who will now miss her terribly. My prayers go out to the family. Tommy we are all here for you honey. I hope you're able to find peace and comfort knowing how your mom cherished all her time with you. Love to you my friend.
