“ Uncle Ed, you will be sorely missed, I learned so much from you, you and Grandad led me to the lord, and I watched how each of you served him, your family, and community. I will do the same.

Praise the creator of all, he is real and he is good.

Im growing a garden with some the same seeds you grew yours and Ive dedicated it in honor of you, and will remind my children about you and your garden as mine grows and is fruitful.

I will miss having a wise voice to call in the night, when things seemed their darkest, all I can do is to try to do that for others, I will remember good lives lived, like yours, and take courage that I will do the same.

God bless your soul, we love you and will always cherish your memory.
