“ Wonderful memories of Ed as a great leader for Christ! I look forward to meeting him again. Warmest sympathy to his family, April Auer Mulley

“ My earliest memories of Ed where of him... standing like a giant on the platform of the Sunday School Room at Bethany Chapel. Enthusiastically leading us in song, checking our memorized verses, conducting "Sword Drills", inviting us to meet Jesus and find salvation. Amid the hail of candy he was tossing to the 'winners' of his challenges... it was in that room, at his invitation that I was saved... reborn in those creaky little folding chairs as a new spiritual creature. Thank you, Ed, for introducing me to Jesus, to new life, and for encouraging my growth. I look forward to seeing you again very soon, when we meet in the air with our Lord, Savior and King, Jesus!
