“ I taught Eddie and he graduated with my son Jason. Eddie was the one member of that class that everyone liked and respected. He was the one that absolutely no one could ever say anything negative about. I am so sorry for your loss and pray that God send His comforting Angels to surround you all.

“ As I was thinking before Eddie's passing, was looking forward to him being back and leading worship. We really enjoyed him leading the worship. You could just tell he was trying to be led by Holy Spirit. We did not get to talk to him as much as others, but you could tell there was something unique about him. Although he is with the Lord, he's more alive now than at anytime. And with all the prophetic events rapidly happening now, it seems we're in the last minute before midnight before the rest of us will be caught up and reunited with all those having gone before. It's going to be great, all of us together with all those already there having the time of our lives. Yet they are missed very much until that time. Kaylee, boys, and family, be sure you are lifted up in prayer.

“ Kaylee, Jacob, Luke, Nate & family,

Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Eddie was a GREAT guy who lived by his faith and loved his family. Our friendship meant a lot to me, and I miss him already. The last time we communicated was at the end of July, and Eddie was still very strong in his faith. He was always positive, and we were all praying that he would make a full recovery. Eddie didn't lose his fight with cancer; it was God's plan to bring Eddie home when he did. It was too soon for all of us here on earth, but by God's timing it was perfect. Being believers in Christ we all want to end up where I know Eddie is today, and that is in heaven with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. One day we will all see Eddie again, and there will be no more pain, sorrow, nor grief. Kaylee and boys, we love you all and are here to support you in any way we can. May the Lord put his loving arms around you and bring you the strength, comfort and understanding you need to go through this very difficult time.

We love you,

Brian, Michelle, Cole & Connor

“ Eddie was the greatest example of a Man of God, worshipper, father and husband! He taught us about the gentleness of worship. He always made us laugh. Until the very end Eddie showed us how to trust and have faith in Jesus! He leaves a legacy that will lead others to know Jesus! Until we see you again, rejoice with our Savior. In Christ, Eddie & Edith Tyler
