“ Although i only met Gene a few short years ago, i will always consider him as best friend and business partner. The Titan Transport family already misses him dearly. Thankfully, his legacy will continue through his son Dustin, and all of the Yager family.

“ I wish I had met Mr. Gene sooner, however I am grateful for everyday he was apart of lives. One of the first things he told me was if I ever needed anything he would be there for me. And over the last two years I watched how much he cared for everyone including my daughter. Not a day went by that he didn't ask “how is my girl” or “why didn't you bring my girl to work “ He even made me promise to let him know when we arrived safely to Disney for vacation.
“Promise me now as soon as you get there safe you let me know”
That was Gene! Caring, compassionate, and giving.
We loved Mr. Gene very much. Words can never express how much he meant to our family!
Our deepest heartfelt condolences to Dustin, Cortney, Ava, Peka, and all of his loved ones.

“ One of my joys in life was coaching and share time with Dustin. I knew Gene before I ever met his son. Owning a small trucking company reminds you who was there when you started. As years go by you are fortunate to know a man; that would send you a bus ticket and put you in a truck, putting you back to work. My life is better knowing him. To Dustin, family, and friends my you find comfort and peace in the days to come.

“ I've been with Gene and Dustin for over nine years, and I know that Gene is already sorely missed. He has always been the strength that held everything together, the friend to talk to, the first one to help when you needed him. His strength was immeasurable, his love without condition, and his confidence was neverending, in himself and others. A kind generous soul that will be remembered for all time. We love you and miss you!
