“ I'm looking at your picture and see so many family members: Matthew, Eli, Grandpa Dee, your brother, your mom and your dad. Now, I just wish I could have seen you one more time, Edwin. It would have been nice to make more memories with our families as we did when we were kids like the time you tried teaching Travis and I how to box with your boxing gloves. At some point, you got tired of watching us trying to TKO one another and left. That's one of my favorite childhood memories of you. So, I can only imagine the fun your children had being raised by you. I hope I'll get to hear those stories someday. As for now, we will have to make new memories in Heaven.

Love you cousin,

I will truly miss Edwin I haven't seen them in many years since we were in South Carolina to pick up my grandmother and Meet his wife but one of the most memorable times that I can think of is going into his room opening up the cassette tape of Van Halen 1984 and rocking out and then heading to the Edisto River stopping by the pool hall store before we went swimming and getting a little something special "20/20" from there and heading down and hanging out underneath the bridge by the river. I will truly miss him and my prayers go out to Edwin's family and Eric's family I know this has been a hard time in the last year but he is up there in heaven with his mom and dad's grandparents and uncles looking down and probably guarding your family from above. I will always remember that and many other memories that we shared together and prayers for his cousins that live up there with him in South Carolina. Love you cuz and one day we will see you again with the lord up above. 🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏

I am still in shock that Edwin has left us. That little boy with the golden smile grew up to be such a fine young man. We are all heartbroken.

Rhonda, Abby & Drew, I am praying for God's loving shield to hold and keep you and Eric, Jenny & Kids in this sad time.

*Love you all,

Edwin, so shocking that you've left so soon. My heart goes out to Rhonda, Abby and Drew, and all the rest of the family that's still here. It will be but a moment for you until we've all joined you, but for us left behind time still trudges on - sometimes slowly, sometimes quickly, but always with the aching sense of loss and memories of the past. Peace to you cousin, and until we all have that grand family reunion on the other side, say 'hi' to my Dad for me, and to the countless others that are no longer here, but that are there with you. It's never goodbye, but always, "See you later." My love and prayers to all, Kym
