“ I am grieving with all of you and I want you to know that I will miss her so much! Taking care of her was a gift and I am so grateful to have been lucky enough to of had that pleasure. She was a ray of sunshine to all she came across. My hot chocolates will be a forever reminder of our days together. I will miss all our long talks and her reminding me of things I would forget:). My prayers of comfort and all my love are with you and your family. I love you Mrs Sunderland

“ Dear Patti & Mekonnen, We always think of our moms as being eternal. Elizabeth Sunderland is your eternal angel in heaven. She is free of pain and suffering as she is with God now. She will watch over you and you will feel her love shine down on you each and every day. I will keep you both and your family in my prayers. All my love, Sue

“ Dear Patti & Mekonnen, Butch and Juanita, Debbie and Bill...our condolences and prayers of comfort go out to you and your families. I found a quote that seemed fitting...."Perhaps they are not stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy." Unknown Author. We will miss Aunt Betty. She will be forever in our hearts. Our sympathy and thoughts are with you, Peter, Meg, Ellie, and Otto

“ Patti & Mekonnen, Butch & Juanita, Debbie and Bill...all our love and thoughts are with you and your families. Aunt Betty will always live in our hearts and happy memories - she was a very, very special and sweet woman, who remained positive and loving, right up to the end. The world has lost a calm and warm and comforting soul. She will be missed. With deepest sympathy, Karyn, Don, John, and Dennis
