“ *Bob and Family:
I was sorry to read in the Elmira Star-Gazette of the passing of Elizabeth. It always impressed me how generous she was to you Bob, allowing you time to pursue your favorite hobbies of hunting and fishing. That's something special and so was Elizabeth. You both had a great 62 years together. To you and your children, I offer my condolences. Stay strong.
Jim McGann
P.S. Bob, I miss sharing our outdoor adventure stories.*

“ *Dear Robin, Lesia, David, Robert & Loved Ones Of Liz~ So sorry to read of your Mom/wife's passing. I remember her as a dedicated Nurse's Aide @St. Joseph's Hospital when I worked there. Above all, Liz was so proud of her children & their families!
Likewise, she always made me feel so Special when we met! What a vibrant, positive life she lived! Reflect on so many memories of the Good Times!
My sincere Sympathy,
Mary Ann*

“ Deepest condolences to Bob, Robin and all the rest of Liz's family and loved ones. As her neighbors across the street we enjoyed our talks with Liz on the front porch. We used to share laughs and stories about southern living and the old "hood", Elmira, NY. We will miss her!
