“ Dear Roy, Nancy, Michel, John, and Sam, I know there are no words to express or assuage the depth of your grief right now. But I do want to say what you already know: Beth was an extraordinarily beautiful, gifted, kind, and strong woman who adored all of you and your children with a fierce and powerful love. I will always be so grateful to her because of the kindness and generosity she extended to me during the difficult days of my divorce, and the way she made me feel so welcome and wanted at holiday dinners and family celebrations. It was a joy to see her absolute delight in her grandchildren and to hear her wonderfully funny stories of their various escapades. What a tremendous blessing to have her as a wife, mother, and grandmother! I hope you can take comfort in the joy she gave, and my heart goes out to each one of you. What a legacy she has left to us all, and I am so honored to have known her. May God bless and keep you in these difficult days. Sincerely, Martha Peeples
