“ Ellen and I worked together for a short while as caregivers. We hit it off from the beginning and we became friends. Her gentle countenance, kind and caring ways combined with a fighting Spirit for her own Family and friends and employers and patients will forever be etched on my mind. She prayed for them all. She won the Judge’s heart in court as he perceived her capability and love to care for her young great grandson! A God fearing Woman. She will be greatly missed but has passed the baton on to her daughter and family. An amazing Legacy. ”
