“ *I loved going to the Family get together's at Ron and Jackie's. Elsie always had a great story to tell or a good joke to tell. She was always full of life and made everyone she would meet smile. I will forever remember her smile. Play the big 18 in the sky.

“ *We met only a short time ago.
We talked a bit and said our "hellos".
But in those moments I knew I had found a "gem".
Little did I know she would be gone so soon.
Elsie I hardly got to know you.
And for the love of Elsie I shall always remember those few moments.*

“ Mama... I don't have the words to express how much I love you and appreciate your guidance on being a wonderful mama . you lived through trials and tribulations and became a superb mother.. I thank you for teaching me the rights and wrongs...the perfectionist worker that I am..the person who wants to make everyone smile. Even when they don't want to smile... I wasn't ready for you to pass...I know that you will always be with me... I love you so much mama... until we meet again... love your daughter.. Kelly Renee'Townsend

“ Elsie was like a sister to me. We shared many great memories of golfing and other activities that brought much laughter. Whenever I was going through a rough spell she would turn it around and make me smile. I will forever miss our weekly talks, as I will miss you dearly. Elsie I know you're soaring with the other angels making them smile. Rest In Peace dear friend. I LOVE YOU!!

“ My mom was the strongest woman I know. All of the things she has survived through including losing her soulmate and two children all her siblings I will always have the utmost praise and love. Raising four children by herself in 1975 was not an easy task. I have always believed you play the cards you are dealt and I learned that from her! Nobody laughed harder. I loved to try and make her laugh at all times!! I already miss mom immensely but I know she was in pain and I know she is at peace. LOVE YOU MOM!

“ Where do I begin to explain the love that was shared with me by Aunt Elsie. Her love was limitless. She had an enormous gift to make you feel as if you were the most important person in the room. She always had the time to listen and cheer you on. When you spoke to her you believed there was nothing you couldn't do. Our last conversation my computer was giving me grief and she assured me I could figure it out. You're a smart girl you can do this, she said. She always thought more of me than I did myself. I will be praying for all of you as you prepare for your Moms homecoming. There are so many people that will greet her and those thoughts bring comfort. My heart is heavy. I will miss her until I see her again. To my cousins and their families I pray your memories bring you comfort. I'm sure you have endless stories, love and smiles to share. Keep her close, I'm sure she'll never be far away. Until we meet again Aunt Else, I love you more.
