“ Dear Brown family,

Although we only ever met Emily at Eric and Christina's wedding in the fall, we've grown to know and love Eric right along with Christina, and over the years have heard many wonderful stories of her visits with all of you. Our thoughts are with you at this unimaginably difficult time, as is our hope that your memories of your daughter, granddaughter, and sister will offer you a source of comfort.

With deepest sympathy,

“ We have such wonderful memories of Emily. My girls, Molly and Alice, spent many hours with Emily competing and at practice at Buckeye Gymnastics on the Scarlet and Gray team. We were neighbors and they attended Berkshire Middle School in Ohio together. She was such a shining light to everyone she touched and the world will always be a little darker now, without her. Shocked beyond belief at her passing. Will remember her forever.
