“ I meet Emma (Dollar Reed) about 24 or 25 years ago, when I knocked on her door for my son Jeremy (before he and Trina got married) and she told me he had ridden a bike to the store. Of course it was our 1st time meeting, but she invited me in and made me feel welcome. Dollar holds a special place in my heart as does Trina Reed Varner who will always be my daughter-in-law. Her meals were to die for and her smile would light up the room. Emma (Dollar) Reed will be missed by myself and my husband William. May you rest in peace and soar with the angels. Love you always Dollar.
