“ Eyfynn was one of my special children. I love his smile, gentleness and kindness. He is one of the most respectful children I know. I will truly miss his smile as he paid attention in Sunday school. He truly wanted to know about the Lord.

*With loving memories,
Mrs. Theresa*

“ Though with us such a short time, Eyfinn made a difference in the lives of many people. Please allow me to start a memorial scholarship here at Eagle Nest with our Jr. Beta Club raising money which will be used to send as many 4/5 grade students to local sports camps each year. May God comfort you all.

“ Eyfinn was a hilarious and bright child. The day we pulled up with our moving trucks he and his three siblings showed up and asked how they could help us. He was respectful and kind. Eyfinn loved playing sports and he studied strings at the local performing arts school. He was a true Renaissance Man in the making! My younger children looked up to him so much.

May light perpetual shine upon you, Eyfinn and may the peace of the Lord be with your loved ones.
