“ *Charlotte and Salley,
You and your families are in our thoughts and prayers in the home going of cousin, Fairy, she will be missed as I always loved stopping by to visit her when I went to S.C. Our great Grandson, Shane still has the pictures he took of her last summer when we stopped by, she was so warm and loving to him. I remember when she came to Florida to a couple of our reeves reunions we had in Ocala and she loved every minute of it. May God give you all His peace and comfort you in this sad time of your lives. love and prayers, Cousin, Nell Brown and family.*

“ Dear Charlotte, Salley, and entire family of Faye,
We would like to express our sympathy in your loss. I never had the pleasure to meet Faye, however I know Charlotte very well. I know over the last 5 years that Charlotte and her Mother prayed for me many times, and I have prayed for them. Therefore, I feel like I did know Faye. I'm sure she was a wonderful person.
Charlotte and Sal took great care of her and I'm sure that meant so much to her.
You are all in our thoughts and prayers. God Bless all of you,
Love,
Karen and Mark Bennie

“ To the members of Faye's family,

I will always remember Faye and Vernelle Hendrix as they were the matriarchs of our Fox -Hill family. We celebrated family reunions for many years, getting to know other members of the family and enjoying covered dish dinners at Maple Cane. Faye was always very gracious and loving to all of us; a very special person. She will be missed.
