“ When I think of my childhood years from age 10-14, so many memories include Faye! She and her family served my home church during those years and she had the patience of Job! Teenage girls have many highs and lows and Faye loved us all through the rollercoaster of emotions preteens and teenagers find themselves riding. She had two of the cutest little boys and a huge youth group and she always had a smile and a heart filled with love. She was the first to introduce our church to puppet ministry and I so cherish all she taught us about using these puppets to share God’s love to a world in need. She took us to see a new movie called “Grease” and our puppet team learned the songs and performed them with our puppets on our summer mission trips. She was patient with us when many of our practices were filled with girls laughing and wasting time- but Mrs. Faye never lost her cool with us. Sheri, Lisa and me became dear friends and all these years later we still stay in touch because of the bonds we made then and we still share today- largely because of Faye. She even trusted us to babysit for her boys!

Thank you, Faye, for your love and acceptance! Thank you for loving us and continuing to be a part of my life with the help of Facebook. Chris and Kevin, your mom was SO proud of you and loved you and her grandchildren so much! She was a light and her love for Jesus was evident in all she said and did. I know she is with her Lord and I’m sure Amanda welcomed her to Heaven! I am so sorry for your loss! Praying for you all! Sending my love to you Mr. Wimberly and Kevin and Chris!
