Francisca was born on October 4, 1947 in General Trias, Cavite, Philippines, daughter of the late Andres and Soledad Deseo. She was known to many of her friends and family as Fanny or Frannie. She was a college graduate of University of the East in Manila, Philippines. This is where she met her late husband Rody and were married for 16 years. After her late husband's passing, Francisca raised her 3 children on her own with the help of her eldest daughter Iris. It strengthened their bond as a family. She enjoyed working in retail starting at Babies "R" Us and then at Wal-Mart for 15+ years with her many wonderful coworkers that became friends.

Francisca was part of a very close-knit family. Always together for gatherings, weekly to monthly family visits, and good eats. She enjoyed traveling with her family from road trips to the mountains and beaches to traveling the world. She loved cooking, gardening, watching TV and movies, dancing, singing, and playing the piano. She loved a variety of music from Hip Hop to her favorite Oldies. Francisca was young at heart and would spread happiness, love, and laughter to everyone she knew.

“ Mom, it's been exactly 1 month now since you let us know that God gave you mercy and had to go away peacefully surrounded by your loved ones. We are approaching your 40 days next week. So hard that it's going to be a long time that we see each other through our angel eyes instead of seeing you every month in person. This is our picture together at Grandfather Mountain's Mile High Bridge where you were so nakakatakot to cross but you bravely crossed the rainbow bridge to the other side on your own. You are way up higher now and at a place that's probably as peaceful as the mountains you've always loved. Enjoy the fresh air with Papa and we will all meet you in heaven after we have continued to live life to the fullest, packed with as much adventure as we gave you. You are so alive in our many memories and our hearts, Mombot. Leo and Lucy talk about how would their Mima would react to something they encountered. They have been saying a lot of "Inay!" Haha We love you, Mombot! 😊❤️🙏😭☐🦋🌻🏞️🕒 #tearsonmypillow #weloveourmom #missingyou #mombot

“ Mom, here is what Jose wrote for you. This is how we know you:

She loved music, dancing, and would karaoke at all family events. New Years was always a grand celebration. The saga of her life was filled with adventures both large and small. She enjoyed traveling with her family to the mountains, beaches, and on cruises to every island in the Caribbean. She loved cooking with a passion and gardened in her free time. She was young at heart and always socializing with co-workers, friends, & family. She worked her job till the end and never stopped being “Mombot” to everyone in her extended family. We would like to picture Francisca walking up to her husband an oldies hit song plays. Something like Elvis Presley’s “Can’t Help Falling in Love” or The Beatles “I Want to Hold Your Hand”. They dance and reunite without a moment lost. Just love and peace like the nearly 30 years apart never existed. Afterwards, we know she’ll go into great detail about their children and grandchildren with her firsthand experiences. She’ll tell the good, the bad, and the funny! She believed we have two families in life, The One we’re born with and the one we meet along the way. She lives in the hearts and memories of everyone she touched.

We love you, Mombot

“ I love you, Mom. 🥰❤️ There are so many unforgettable precious memories with you. I will miss your big hugs and kisses. Your voice saying “...si Iyes”. Our many times of weekly family time together dining out and those monthly wknd trips at Kim’s in Columbia. Our many travel adventures since Papa was here and we all kept that going with our multitude of family vacations together this entire time. How about our Mother-Daughters getaway trip in Italy where you walked the total of the marathon distance! So so proud of you, Mom! Age is only a number. The 70s was your new 50s! You loved working as well. You had so much energy. Let’s not forget, you were my shopping buddy and you always knew about the latest fashion. I’m going to miss your delicious cooking. Gone too soon, but very grateful we were able to give you the most fulfilling life. We always wanted the best for you and to keep you happy. Masaya! I loved that you especially enjoyed every moment with your grandkiddos, Leo & Lucy. I will never forget you, Mom. I am going to miss you very much. You are now together again with Papa in Heaven. Give him an extra hug and kiss for us. Forever in our hearts. ❤️ Please watch over us. 😊😊

Love Always,
Iyes
