“ My sincere condolences for the loss of Frank. He was my best friend for many years during high school. We fly-fished together and grew up in and around Paterson, NJ. We lost touch when Frank served in the army after high school except one or two contacts when he was a facility engineer. He was a good friend, and I will remember him fondly, along with his mom, "Goldie". Such a long time ago, but he lives in my memory. I regret that I just learned of his passing last Christmas. I work in Central Africa and would not have been able to attend the wake, but I will hoist a glass in his honor tonight. Sincerely, Richard G. Ruggiero
