“ Gail was one of my first nursing friends as students at Pines . Me ,Gail and Darlene supported each other through our classes. She was always positive and a great role model since she had experience. She was always smiling and make those years together memorable. I am honored to of been her friend.

“ We are so sorry to hear about Gail, she will be very missed! We met Gail around 3 plus years ago when she began coming to our nail salon with Mrs. Paula. She was always so bright and happy and we will remember her genuine kind smile. We love her and her family and send our condolences. 💕💕

“ So, so sorry. Gail was my childhood playmate for years. I lived just a couple of doors away on Bryant Street in Paramus. My mom and Rosalie were good friends. I was an only child and was always at the Crawfords house playing school, doing plays riding bikes and all things that kids used to do back then. I had the best childhood with Gail my best friend. She surprised me (Mary Jane Zelnik) in my adulthood, and we went out with Gail and Ken a couple of times. It was wonderful to reconnect with her and she brought back so many wonderful memories. This is so sad. Heaven has another angel

“ It was a privilege for the Nurses Honor Guard of SC to pay tribute to nurse Gail. One of her colleagues from New Jersey said that when they came to work and saw that she was one of the nurses on the floor that they knew it was going to be a good day. As a nurse we certainly all can all relate to that.. she was a special nurse. Prayers to her family and loved ones. Lynne Malden, RN Low Country NHG
