“ I had the pleasure of working with Gary at UEC. He would have been celebrating his one year UEC anniversary tomorrow, August 10th. Gary was a valued teammate, a devoted son and a genuinely kind person. He will truly be missed.

“ My condolences to Gary's family, may you draw strength from one another to help in your time of need.

I worked with Gary and we were on the same project for awhile, I could always count on him to do his best and get things done. I will miss my friend but I know we will all see him again one day.

I'm lighting a candle for to pay tribute to Gary's life and the color blue for emotional healing, God bless.

Love and Prayers,
Cyndi Kershaw

“ Gary was a special person. I had the pleasure of calling him my friend. We sat at Sapphires quit often laughing, joking, carrying on. Me borrowing (actually stealing his lighter) him trying to get it back. It's an inside joke. His spot there at the right hand corner will never be filled by a better soul. Will miss your laughter, your advise and your friendship. Rest peacefully my friend.
