“ I had the privilege of working with Serge at Marvin's, Moncks Corner. He was a wonderful, caring person. It was a pleasure working with him. He was always willing to help. I was very sad when he left, but he came back for visits and us ladies always got a hug. When I would go to Wal-Mart and see him I would get a hug! He will be missed. He was special and I'm proud to say he was my friend. Fly high Serge.

“ I met Serge and Patti on the same night. It was at there land. A celebration for buying there property. I immediately found comfort that I was looking for. I had just recently relocated to the erea. They became the closest friends I have to this day. Serge taught me how to live the right way and we had more fun together than you could ever imagine. I will always cherish his friendship. I am devastating that I can't be there to hug your neck Patti Sue.....thoughts and prayers to you!!!!

“ Deepest condolences to family and friends. Ger is a lovely man. We grew close during our WEZL radio years. He had this "voice" and a love for real country music. Not many may know this but he once was a drummer for a major country artist. I want to say Mel Street but not sure. We spent that ominous night together in '89 during Hugo at my place. He helped keep me and the kids calm. I loved that man. He will be missed.
