“ I met Gertrude (Veronica) when I was living in Summerville, SC and attending St. John the Beloved Catholic Church. We enjoyed many times together. I enjoyed having tea with her and sharing her many memories of life in Germany, then Venezuela, California and now in SC near her son Fred.

My condolences to her family. She lived a good life. May she rest in peace.

“ I have sweet memories of Gertrude aka Veronica. She was always so elegantly dressed. I loved listening to her stories about her life as we shared a cup of tea or coffee with a sandwich or a pastry from the German Bakery in West Ashley. She spoke so lovingly of husband and her son and family and her sister. She loved showing me pictures of when she lived in Venezuela and in California. The pictures of President Reagan and First Lady Nancy always made her smile. She loved telling me quirky jokes and watching Days of our Lives. She also loved classical music and the fine arts. She most especially loved listening to the church organ. We would go together to listen to the Sunday afternoon music performances at St. John the Beloved. I am thankful for the memories we shared. My deepest condolences to her son and grandchildren and her sister. Veronica, please rest easy with the angels and please say hello to my mom & dad.
