“ I've got many fond memories of my mother-in-law. She was a kind, sweet soul that made me feel like a member of her family from the first moment we met.

Reminiscing, one of my favorite memories of Glenda is when she and my now deceased mother met for the first time. My mother, Glenda, Karen and I were standing in the kitchen talking. I said something either extremely funny or incredibly stupid... perhaps both. As if on cue, Glenda and my mom laughed, raising a hand to their mouths to keep their dentures from flying out. When they saw what they had done, they laughed all that much harder. They tossed their free arms around each other, laughing and holding their teeth in like they know each other for years.

Another memory that always brings a smile to my face and brightens my day is one of "Glenda the Speed Demon". Karen and I went on our first cruise with her mom. Glenda discovered that the cruise line provided electric scooters to those passengers that needed them. Let me tell you, she was thrilled! My wife and I rarely saw her during the days aboard ship as she was always doing something. On those rare occasions we did see her, it was just fleeting glimpses as she sped down the corridors on her scooter. Her white hair billowing behind her as she zipped past the mere walking mortals making their way down the corridors. It was truly an awe inspiring sight!

I feel blessed for being able to have had Glenda in my life. I will always cherish the memories she left me. She will be sorely missed.

“ My favorite memory of Grandma was when she was dancing and singing beside Grandpa and the look on his face. She had such a beautiful voice and she loved to cut up with us. ”

“ I have so many memories of Grammy, but I think my absolute favorite part was when she would send me National Geographic magazines as a kid. I would always look forward to getting them in the mail and looking at all the cool pictures of animals and the fun facts page. I even entered a photo contest they had. She definitely helped spark my interest in photography and my love for animals as a child. I will miss her so much ❤️
