Dear Ms. Glenease Sutton's nephew Neal. My sincerest condolences for your loss. I was so blessed to have worked with Ms. Sutton at Sharp-Boylston in the early 80's. She was such a special lady and one I looked up to. She spoke warmly of you. She was such a glamorous lady.

“Since I was 18 months old, she has been a big part of my life. There were times over the years that we were apart, but the minute we were back together it's as if we had never been apart. She was home to me. She was beautiful, smart, courageous, determined, independent, engaging and ahead of her time. She was a true Southern lady and I loved being with her. I could always count on her, she never let me down. Her quick wit and love for life drew others to her.

I went over during Thanksgiving and stayed with her for 10 days when she first went in the hospital. I am so glad for the time we had together.

It's hard for me to explain who she was to me. She loved me unconditionally and I loved her unconditionally. She was a second mom, mentor, counselor, friend and more. She was "My Neasia" and she will live forever in my memories and my heart. Thank you God for blessing me with this beautiful loving woman in my life. May she Rest In Peace. Fly high and free. No more pain, no more disappointments, no more sorrows. Until we meet again, my sweet Neasia.

“ For 50 years, Glenease was one of my dearest and most trusted friends. We first met when I was a young teenager and she quickly became a role model and mentor to me. Knowing her inspired me to pursue a life for myself that was not limited by my small town roots. In a few years, I was living and working in NYC, but the miles that separated us did not lessen our friendship. Through the next 4 decades, we stayed in close touch with letters, e-mails, phone calls, and visits, and time's passing just made me increasingly aware of what a wonderful person she was. Her passing on has left a void in my life that can never be filled. But I will treasure the many memories of the long talks and fun times we shared and will always remember her for her impeccable style, grace, thoughtfulness and wonderful sense of humor.
