“ I love and miss you, Daddy. You left us too soon but I try to find peace that you're rejoicing with God in heaven and not in pain anymore. No one I ever spoke to had an unkind word to say about you. I remember when I was probably 5 yrs old and you'd open and close my hair clips (AKA "mr blue and mr gray") and "make them talk", making corny jokes, which I thought was hilarious of course. You worked harder than anyone I ever met in my entire life to provide for us. You helped me navigate life, like find my first car and look at colleges. You believed in me when I didn't even believe in myself (and sure put up with a lot during my teenage years!) I remember Levi stealing your recliner when we visited you and saying "Grampy, look, I got your chair!"...and you'd just tease him right back. He decided he loved Clemson and football because of you.... I simply have too many memories to even list. We miss you so, so much.

My family and I grew up with Greg attending the Living Word Tabernacle. Greg was younger but a dedicated young man. Wishing comfort to his family and in the knowledge he has his Heavenly body now. We have many fond memories to cherish.

May God Bless all of his loved ones.
