“ Harry is already greatly missed. He was like my father at times, was my friend and sometimes disciplinary. Harry had a heart of gold. I will cherish the memories of all our talks the story tellings of his younger days, all the times we fished together. Sitting on the swing overlooking the pond after he fed the fish was and always will be priceless precious memories, I hold onto dearly. Forever in my heart. Sending many prayers, big hugs and much love to Lamar, Kimberly & family.
