“ To Coach Scott, Angie and Joni..I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of Mrs. Scott. Mrs Scott was a wonderful person. She was always so nice and pleasant when I played baseball for Coach Scott many years ago.. The last time I saw her was years ago when I stopped by the old house on Light Road to introduce my sons to Coach and Mrs Scott. Tracy and I were like brothers and it really hurt me when Tracy passed away. I often think about him and the family still to this day.. Coach Scott and Mrs. Scott were always great role models for all to follow.. I know Tracy was there ready to greet and welcome his mom into heaven.. Love all of you and you are in our prayers.. Tillman Millhouse and family..

“ Helen and Henry were two of the first friends we made when we started attending SFWC over twenty years ago, and quickly became very important to Kelly and I. She always reminded me of my own Mom, and sort of felt like an aunt to me. Her Godly wisdom and gentle spirit will be greatly missed by all of us. I am thankful for the blessing of her friendship.

“Helen Scott was one of the first women I met when we moved to Summerville and started attending SFWC! We soon became friends and share our love for God, family, church and each other! She was one of God’s greatest blessings to me and my husband. Her and Henry were great example as lovers of God and family! Henry was her Warrior and they loved to hold hands. Helen and I loved to eat Liver and onions and would go as often as we could to eat together with our husbands. Our favorite saying was; “BUT GOD!” We trusted the Lord and He was always faithful. We shared our life stories and prayed for one another. We share secrets that will remain our secrets. When we held each other hand we knew that we were binding together to live life until we were called to our Heavenly Home. Helen was my heart ❤️ friend and every moment together was precious. Thank you Helen for being my friend, my confidant, my supporter in Sunday School and Couples Ministry. My heart is broken because I will miss you so very much. But I will see you again one day!
