“ Two of the sweetest people on Earth: George and Hope Garrett. During my college years at Queens, they made me one of their daughters. I feel so blessed to have been in their home so many times as a guest but treated like a family member. My prayers for all of you, for God's peace and comfort during this time.

“ I was fortunate to have Hope as an aunt, and I loved her breezy Southern style, not to mention her southern drawl. When visiting Hope and her family at their Charlotte home as a teenager, I told them I would live in NC on day...and here I am.

This past August, we had made plans to view the Total Eclipse, but were having second thoughts due to the dire traffic predictions. Knowing we were planning to go, Hope called Zvonko, Anne and I. She told us she had scoped out a parking lot in her area for a great view, and that she would be picking up George so that he could watch the eclipse with her. She updated us on where the best viewings in SC would be and gave us route numbers from memory. We were so inspired that we felt compelled to go. We had a perfect viewing at Swan Lake in Sumter, SC - and we owe that beautiful viewing and spectacular memory solely to Aunt Hope.

I will so miss her Southern hospitality, her great laugh, her amazing memory, her ability to keep up with all the family goings-on, and Hope's will to keep moving forward.

Love,
Julie Garrett and Zvonko Kutle

“ I have such sweet memories of "Mom" Hope. She and George were my second parents during my preteen and teen years. Always loving. Always sweet. Always supportive. She made me smile every time she laughed her unique, 'airy giggle.' Her happiness was contagious. Her genuine love of others inspiring. Her sense of humor, always fun. Her intellect impressive. How fortunate I am to have shared my best friend Susie's mom during those important years of growing up! Heaven has received a beautiful angel. I believe my angel mom was among those welcoming Hope. Saturday was the anniversary of my mom's birthday. I just know Hope joined in the celebration...and that really makes my sad heart smile. You will be missed by many here on Earth, Hope, but rejoiced by your Heavenly Family!! 💕🙏💕

“ My heart aches for the loss of my dear friend , Hope. She won me over the first time I met her about seven years ago when we bought a home near her and George. My husband and I claimed Hope and George as our adopted parents since we've lost our biological parents. Hope taught me the true meaning of southern hospitality. We worked together on puzzles. She taught me how to make collards, that I'd never even heard of, and she shared her recipe for eleven bean soup. There was never a dull moment with Hope around. I grew to love her like a Mother. I will forever carry her memory in my heart. My husband Chuck and I wish to extend our deepest sympathy to the Garrett family. We look forward to the day when we can all meet together when we all reach our Heavenly Home. Shirley Muhs
