“ Ina was a wonderful friend and fellow teacher. A compassionate and loving woman who her family and horses. She loved all living things, including her middle school students. She leaves a hole that few can fill. I am traveling this weekend, and will miss the services, but my thoughts and prayers are with all of the family. May God bless you with peace and his love.

“ I am so glad that I got to visit and pray with Ina at our 50th high school reunion last year. We sat in the back, across from each other. Ina was the one classmate that encouraged our reunion. It was very important to her. I almost didn't attend but I am so glad that I did. Seeing and talking with Ina meant the world to me. I know she is no longer suffering, and one day we'll all have a glorious reunion with her!

Ina, my heart is heavy for you and the girls. You have been such a good friend. I'll never forget you combing all the knots out of my hair after I was in ICU for two weeks. Noone else would have done that. I know you are in heaven now and having a grand reunion with everyone there. I'm looking forward to being with you in the future.
