“ Ginger and I worked together for 10 years. I discovered that she could embellish a story like no one else, always adding funny details. We shared so many memories together: shopping, trips to the mountains and lunches. Ginger was instrumental in getting me back in church after 25 years. I treasure her sweet nudges and all the testimonies she shared with me. Her influence on me has resulted in a number of family members also reaping the harvest. So, I am forever thankful God chose my friend, Ginger, to help navigate me back into my Savior's arms. Rest In Peace, Ginger.

“ Ginger was my "Sister" and we spent many years together enjoying each other's company. We were pinochle partners with Charles and Carl and played for untold hours. Ginger was always happy and her happiness was contagious. She was funny, witty, and a beautiful person. Ginger will be missed here on earth but her legacy will live on with those of us who knew and loved her. God bless and keep you "Sister".

“ My condolences to Charles and family, Ginger was such a fun and never a dull moment when she was around. We were high school classmates & reconnected a few years ago - she will be missed.
