“ To Alice, Kim and everybody, I was so sorry to hear about your dad. I always keep in mind the Italian American picnic back then that was so much fun and also the couple times I came and had dinner with you all. Ivo and me got to know each other more. And the times I stopped in his store working in North Charleston and we would talk some outside. That was at the time of getting to know you all in the mid 70,s. I am happy that you had your dad around 84 years. I lost mine at 18 years old. But thanks to Ivo and you all I always had my old roots to keep around! I wish to apologize for not showing yesterday due to a high risk covid test and have 2 more days to stay away. I want you to know you all are in my thoughts and prayers and I am always around should you ever need me. Take care and God bless, Dennis Nacco

“ We shared a wonderful friendship with so many great memories. Your first golf game at Eagles Landing with our fun loving foursome, Colucci, Knight, Schneider and Hales. Your first Caribbean/Mexican cruise. Sharing your home with our Low Country Cocktail Club. Our vacations to China, Shanghai and Beijing, and you climbing to the top of the Great China Wall and to Mexico and jet skiing and golfing at Poke to Poke. Thanks for a life time of memories. “ The first time I met "Dad" he pulled out a HUGE round of parmesan cheese from the fridge and placed on the table. He took a knife and just cut a chunk to share. I knew we were going to get along just perfect!
