“ I want to thank everyone for their thoughts and prayers I have found great comfort in all the great memories. I was one of the lucky people to find their soulmate in their lifetime. I know when I am sad it is only because I feel sorry for myself. Jacki is at peace and I am glad for that. I thank you all!!!!!!

“ I’ve went through a million pictures in the last few days, and this one is my favorite ❤️ There’s no words to use to express how I’m feeling, but let’s just say I’m happy you’re no longer suffering. You were already my guardian angel from the time I was five, without you, who knows where I would have been. I pray that you continue to look over me, and stay my guardian angel until we meet again.

“ I met Jacki when she lived in Philly...She was there when I needed someone to talk to...Soon after, I became the babysitter for her two precious children Kyle and Jenna (who were so adorable and good for me) while Jacki went to work... I know her family grew when she met Ron and his children...She loved them...Her family grew more when Ron and Jacki had their son Ronnie...Jacki always had a smile on her face and a joke to crack...R.I.P. my friend and know that you raised strong kids who will be able to get through this difficult time. 💕😭
