“ My dear Uncle Jimmy I grew up seeing you at least once a month. You always called my mom Antonia everyday. You loved all of us and made sure we were taken care of. My most treasured memories are of the summers I spent in your home in the shores of NJ. Your three daughters and I had lots of fun playing and swimming in the pool. You worked long hours but you always said goodnight to us. I love you uncle Jimmy may you and Anne stay happy in heaven. Love Ada Hernandez

“ Carmen, our daughters, and I extend our deepest condolences to Uncle Jaime's family on his passing. To me, he served as a great example of a hard-working family man. He was also a critical link to our family deeply rooted in the soil of Puerto Rico's central highlands. Born during the height of the Great Depression and nine years my mother's junior, tue families faced incredible challenges that led to devotion to hard work and resilience. These qualities served him well when he moved to the US mainland. He wasn't afraid of hard work and sought opportunities wisely. Over the years we kept in touch and spoke at least once a year, more often over the past year and as recently as several weeks before he got ill. He was a kind soul and we will miss him.
