“ To Janice and Family:

I was in Florida visiting my children last week and did not know about Bootsie's passing until catching up with my papers today. I am so sad to read this and wanted you to know my thoughts and prayers go out to all of you in your great loss. We suffered loss of daughter in law in November at 52 from cancer so still grieving also. We loved Bootsie and thought him to be an outstanding contractor and friend. He built the home of our dreams in Parkshore III and we loved living in that beautiful home many years. My children grew up there and still talk about that great big house. JD and I have been divorced over 20 yrs but there were 25 years spent there and we will be forever grateful for Bootsie's expert work on that house. May your memories be ever close to you and just wanted to let you know we loved him and were blessed to have had him cross our path in life. God be with all of you in the days ahead as you go through your sorrow.

Sincerely

“ Uncles have a special role. Not being our father, they can be a friend and a supporter in a different way than anyone else in our lives. They are both a relative and a companion; one of the few people able to be both. Whether they are crazy, weird, fishing buddy, mentor or only seen at holidays, the loss of an uncle is a particularly hard one. Their loss, however, is filled with the years of happy memories we had, and that special connection that belongs only to uncles.
