James enlisted in the U.S. Air Force, where he was part of the Tan Son Nhut AB 460th FMS (Jet Shop). He proudly served his country and was a proud Vietnam Veteran for the rest of his years. Following his military service, he spent many years employed at Summerville Marine and Berkeley Outdoors. He married the love of his life, Meldarene Green and they raised their daughter, Julie McCrackin. They spent many memorable years together until her passing in 2005. James is survived by his daughter, Julie McCrackin, son-in-law, Joseph; beloved grandchildren: Dylan and Tyler McCrackin; and numerous extended family members and friends. He was preceded in death by his parents, brothers: Tom and Carroll Green; and one sister, Janice McJunkin.

He was a loving, generous, humble, and heroic man who loved to share a story with anyone who would listen. Each and every story was a treasure to hear. He never met a stranger and would be the first to lend a hand to anyone in need.

James was an avid fisherman and loved nothing more than spending his time with his grandsons, as well as the rest of the family, watching old Western films and TV shows. He also loved nature and the outdoors, enjoying such interests and hobbies as, fishing and boating. To each person he met, he was a fast and loyal friend. To his family, he was a true hero and an icon of love and affection. He will be greatly missed by the many people who loved him. “ My fondest memories of Papa Green.... "Call Fred and tell her we are frying some deer meat" Going to see him at Summerville Marine on Hwy 78 the going to Captain D's for lunch next door. Sitting in the Truck with Julie and learning how to drive out in Walterboro. Watching him from down the street at night while he cut the grass on his riding lawn mower with the headlights on..we would always giggle but after working all day, this is the only time it could be done. I can go on and on. This family has been a blessing in my life. So glad that Jim and Meldy are back together. Sending love and care to all of the family near and far.
