It seems so hard to comprehend that your're no longer here but all the happy memories will help keep you near.

“ I worked with Jim at INTERCON Security and he was always such a breathe of fresh air. Always helpful and respectful. I enjoyed talking and listening to stories that Jim would tell and after I left the department we continued to stay in touch. My deepest heartfelt condolences go out to his family. He had half of his life still in front of him and this news was a tragedy . May he find his happiness in Heaven. He will be missed . Shannon Perdikis

“ I was just barely 18 when I met Jim. I was new to the Navy and lost. Reporting to my first duty station in Puerto Rico was huge. I wanted to do well but wasn't sure what to do. Jim had been there for about a year and was assigned to help me. We quickly became friends. He encouraged me to be more to do more. He got me to take classes, he was there for me when I was down, and he was there to celebrate the great things. We ended up being stationed in the same location maybe not the same ship 4 times. He was my best man at my wedding and the Godfather to my oldest child. He was my BROTHER in all but blood. I am writing this with tears in my eyes. I am not a man that has many close friends, but Jim was one. No matter how long we were not around each other when we next met it was like we were never apart. I have so many great times to remember Jim by but had hoped in retirement we could sit by each other and reminisce of those times together. The world is most assuredly a poorer place without Jim in it.
