“ Dear Sandy,

I was riding on Old Orangeburg Rd on Tuesday about 1130AM and was just thinking I had not seen Jim in a long while and was wondering how he was doing. I heard he had retired and was hoping you two were on vacation somewhere. :-)

We used to have conversations from time to time about our God in his office when I was still at AgentOwned.

He was such a wonderful Christian Man as you and everyone that knew him know and I thought the world of him.

I know he is at peace and enjoying being with Jesus now ! No doubt in my mind.

Prayers for God's peace and comfort during this time to you and the family.

“ Where do I begin. ...He was one of the most genuine caring. God loving Man one could ever meet. We were so blessed the past seven years. by his sense of humor and his love for. Those less fortunate. Summerbrook was blessed to have him as one of our Elders. We will always remember. This truly Special Man.
