“ We have often told people that we won the lottery. Not the financial lottery, but the neighbor lottery. The financial lottery is limited. The neighbor lottery is fathomless and priceless. That's what we have with Jimmy, Vicki and all the Shirars.

Jimmy's companionship has been significant especially to Mark, whose social interactions are limited due to complications from multiple sclerosis. Jimmy's regular "drive time" phone calls and frequent visits to our home were always a highlight in our day. This summer, he also made time to visit with Mark in the hospital as well as in rehab.

Jimmy seldom came to the door empty handed. He often brought something from his freezer, his garden, candy and a card, photos from his most recent hike, even surprise milk shakes. We enjoyed and appreciated each of these gifts. However, as always, we know Jimmy's real and lasting gift was himself.

Jimmy's presence and compassion were true blessings. His passing leaves a void in our community and a hole in our hearts. We love him and the family. Vicki, we are as close as next door if you ever need anything.

“ Vicki~You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. I know what you are experiencing as just yesterday was the 6 month mark since losing my beautiful daddy. There are no words that can express the pain and sorrow you are experiencing~I can only express that as a family we get through the tough moments. Keep your faith and know that he is now in the hands of our Lord and one day you will see him again. My husband was heartbroken to hear the news as he had come to love Jimmy when he overhauled our boat :o) We will keep you in our thoughts and pray that you will be wrapped in HIS heavenly love and held in the palm of HIS hand for comfort.
