“ *To Jim's Family, Our family grew to know and love Jim when we were all members of Johns Island Presbyterian Church. When he left the island, we sadly lost touch. He visited a few times after that and it was such a treat to see him. He had a wonderful sense of humor and always had a twinkle in his eye. He made all of the men laugh and the ladies feel beautiful. He shared many a joke but the one thing he was serious about was his relationship with the Lord. It was with sadness that we read of Jim's passing but we know he is now in the presence of the Lord.....enjoying all the glories of Heaven. Thank you for sharing him with us! “ I know your Dad, as Nick. I had forgotten his last name and was unable to find out where he was. Unfortunately, I have been watching for him since before Thanksgiving, and knew something was wrong. Nick would come into our store (Harris Teeter) Maybank Hwy, 2 to 3 times a day and I have missed seeing and talking with him on a daily basis.

When I came into work today, an employee had posted his obituary by the time clock. Some of my answers were there right in front of me. I know knew, where my friend was.

Nick was the closest person, in my lifetime, that I felt, was the closest to God, that I ever met. I would see him walk into our store and see his halo and a vision of God right behind him.

He would tell you how lucky he was to have God right by his side. "The good Lord is with me." He would say. I would agree with him, everytime he said so because you knew it was true!

Nick must of been so proud and honored that God to have taken him home on Christmas Day.

To his loving family, I wish I could be at Nick's service today, but I had to work and I did not know about his memorial till this morning. I wanted to say goodbye to my dear friend.

May you continue to smile, everyday in Heaven.

I loved you too Nick.

Your friend,
Mary in Floral

“Jim was the chairman of the Pastor Nominating Committee who extended the call for me to serve Johns Island Presbyterian Church, in 2004. I knew Jim as a good friend, and devoted elder, a wise counselor, and a faithful servant of Jesus Christ. I am sorry for you loss, and profoundly grateful for Jim's sake, that his Baptism into Christ is now complete, and he is fully in the presence of Our Lord for eternity.

"Well done, good and faithful servant; enter into the joy of your master."

On behalf of Charleston Atlantic Presbytery, I extend sincere christian sympathy and condolences to the family. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Jim was a great friend and served at every level of the presbytery. He especially loved new church development and service to the church and presbytery as a ruling elder.

“Jay and Martha, I am so sorry about uncle Jim. He was one of the "fun uncles!" He was always smiling and seemed "up to something!" Jim loved life and his family. It was so apparent because he always came to the reunions even though he lived so far away.

Please know that you have been in my thoughts and prayers. Pam
