“ Tracy and Family, We are shocked and saddened by Jimmy's sudden death. He was one of a kind - and Lord knows, they don't make them like him anymore. His infectious laughter and cheerful nature has always brought joy to everyone's lives and made us laugh until tears were running down our cheeks. We know you miss him terribly, and we miss him just as much. We will continue to honor Jimmy's memory and have you in all our prayers. Please remember us if you need anything. You are not alone. We are with you. May God keep and protect you. With our Deepest Sympathy and Condolences,

“ Tracy and Family, My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family through this heartbreaking time. Having known Jimmy since 5th grade, I have the profound honor of being able to call him a friend for 40+ years. Although there's nothing anyone can say that will ease your pain please know I am thinking of you. My deepest condolences and sympathy to you and your family.
