“ Our hearts, minds and love are with you all, even though we cannot be there. Uncle Everett - was his own man, who adored Aunt Ann and his family, and he also looked out for his mom, dad, brothers and sisters. We were poor, living in Mo. and my dad had died when I was a child of age ten. One day I looked down the road and here comes Uncle Everett, clear from Indiana, packing with him my heart's desire, a girl's bike! He helped mend my broken heart and was my hero from that day on. God, take good care of this man and watch over Aunt Ann and their children. love, Peggy & Larry
