“ We were best friends in childhood. I thought of her a lot after we reconnected in Patchogue. I almost called her to hang out again so many times. We had families to contend with and totally different lives. I have memories of singing together on her front stoop on Pickett Ct. and walking into Malverne to the candy store. Happy memories and a lot of laughter.

“ Janice, my daughter-in-law's Mom, I am so grateful for the time you've given me to know a bit about yourself. I thank you for allowing me to receive your friendship whenever we were together. You were a wise woman, in your own right, sharing experiences with me this past Thanksgiving, was a blessing. Thank you. I know our God has received you home and relieved you from your pain and suffering. I praise God and thank Him for that and giving us a resting place in His everlasting love.
