“ This saddens me deeply. Jay and I were born one day apart and met in high school. We then became family when I married Jerry. We had some amazing oyster roasts with family at Uncle Lou and Aunt Deb's. Those are some of my fondest memories. Aunt Deb and Uncle Lou my words cannot express how sad I am for you both and for Jays girls. Know I love you all and you will be in my prayers.

“ Jay you were one of my closest friends when we were growing up on Milton dr in the creek. We shared many years of great exploration and finding our way in the world as young men. When I heard of your passing , my heart sank. You will truly be missed my friend.

Debbie, Louis and family, we are so sorry for the loss of your beloved Jay. Losing your only son is something I'm sure would not happen anytime soon. As a mother and father, you always think that they will out live you. God had other plans for Jay and although you were not prepared, God has a reason, though we may not understand, just know that he is with you today and always. He resides inside your heart, The wind that blows, he is flying high above. Cherish those special times and know he is with you. Your guardian angel who will always watch over you. May God bless you all in the days ahead. Much love and prayers, you will see him again, One sweet day.... He is smiling knowing his babies are loved and taken care of. Patty and Jack Sanders 🙏💕
