

Jean Ann Yeomans

August 10, 1929 - October 7, 2010

Jean Ann Yeomans, 81, of Summerville, South Carolina, widower of George O. Yeomans, passed away on Thursday, October 7, 2010 at her residence with her children by her side.

Jean was born on August 10, 1929 in Milwaukee, WI, daughter of the late Eugene and Ruth Madden. She grew up in North Arlington, New Jersey with her parents and brother James Madden. She graduated from the New Jersey City State College and spent 25 years teaching in New Jersey. Eighteen of those years were spent in Cedar Grove New Jersey where she was recognized as an outstanding teacher by the Governor's Teacher Recognition Program. Jean had many passions and interests including tennis, reading, walks on the Jersey shore with family, exercising and playing bridge with her good friends, volunteering at the Middleton Plantation for 15 years and line dancing with her husband George. She was blessed with many friends in New Jersey and was embraced by so many in South Carolina. Thank you all for your love and friendship of our mother.

She was the fabric which kept our family close and the voice of reason and love that guided us all.

She is survived by her loving children Ruth A. Yeomans of Summerville, SC, George S. Yeomans of Jersey City, NJ, and Paul E. Yeomans of Santa Rosa, CA and four wonderful grandchildren Paul, Michael, Tyler and Ryland.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be made to the local Hospice of your choice for the support and care they provided. Services will be announced at a later date.
