She and her husband Brooks shared countless memories over 28 years of marriage. Jennifer poured her heart and soul into raising her kids and made sure that she was actively involved in all aspects of their lives, no matter how small. She instilled values of compassion, faith, work ethic, kindness, and love in each of them. She always gave a steady reminder of how proud she was to be their mother. Jennifer was a friend to all and always willing to lend a helping hand. She developed many friendships over the years and valued each one of them. She never met a stranger, and these relationships reflect her spirit.

“ Words are so inadequate to express my sadness at the loss of my dear friend whom I've known since grade school. We've shared so much over the years, most of all laughter. I will always treasure the memories we share and hold them near to my heart. My thoughts and prayers are with you Brooks, Austin, Colby and Brooke. May God comfort and strengthen you in the days and months ahead.
